NEW BEDFORD BALLETT POLICIES

The school year is divided into three, twelve-week terms beginning in September and ending in June. Parents are welcome to attend during Observation Week - the last week of each term. As with all dance classes and performances, video recorders and cameras are not allowed.

Students must attend all their classes and rehearsals and be on time to assure proper warm-up, training and to avoid disrupting others. If illness or emergency prevents a student from attending class, parents should call the school to report the absence. Absences should be made-up (at the same level or below) within a month. Chronic absences may result in dismissal or failure to advance to the next level.

Missing a rehearsal interferes not only with the other dancers, but with the entire production and the student's role in it. In fairness to everyone and to assure success in the production, the School reserves the right to recast or re-choreograph any piece, at any time. Students who do not feel they can make a full commitment to a production should not sign-up to be in one.

Students must observe the dress code assigned to their level. Hair should be tied back, in a bun if possible, and away from the face and neck. No jewelry should be worn during classes, rehearsals or performances.

Smoking, candy, junk food and gum are strictly prohibited.

The school reserves the right to cancel class and/or substitute teachers when it feels appropriate. If inclement weather forces the school to close, an announcement will be made on the local radio stations and a message left at the school.

Tuition is due the first week of every month, September through May. Tuition is not refundable. A five dollar late fee will be charged on all tuition not paid by the 15th of every month. All tuition must be paid in full by May 7. Students with outstanding balances will not be allowed to participate in the final performance.

I understand that I will be held fully responsible for accident insurance for my child and/or myself, and will not hold New Bedford Ballet or any member of its faculty or staff responsible for injury sustained during or as a result of classes or performances.
